Alps Mountaineering Orizaba 3900 Backpack

 \(/brand.cfm/alps-mountaineering\) Style: 2404902

Thank Alps Mountaineering for the Orizaba. The shoulder straps are padded and have load lifters for easy adjusting. Two aluminum frame stays provides great support. It does have a lower zippered access to make it easier to get to your items throughout your hike. An internal hydration pocket allows you to carry plenty of water to keep you hydrated on your excursion.

DETAILS

Thank Alps Mountaineering (http://www.bobwards.com/category.cfm/brand/ALPS_MOUNTAINEERING) for the Orizaba. The shoulder straps are padded and have load lifters for easy adjusting. Two aluminum frame stays provides great support. It does have a lower zippered access to make it easier to get to your items throughout your hike. An internal hydration pocket allows you to carry plenty of water to keep you hydrated on your excursion. In addition to the large mesh front pocket, there are side mesh pockets with bungy cord to store your small items. So now you're ready for your trip and your pack is full, but you still have a few things to take along, don't worry! The top of the Orizaba pack extends with a spindrift collar, so you can 'over pack.' This pack has an exceptional combination of durability, comfort, and affordability...what else could you ask for?
